Introduction

Welcome to Aviva. We are committed to providing a first-class service. Aviva is the UK's largest insurer with over 200 years' experience in the insurance industry.

This document sets out your insurance policy, conditions, exclusions and other useful information such as how to make a claim related to the policy. The policy is a contract of insurance in place between Wheatley Solutions (on behalf of Lowther Homes who provides the factoring service to your building) and Aviva the insurer. Wheatley Solutions has put this insurance in place for your benefit.

This policy is administered by Lowther Homes. The block policy arrangements are essential to make sure that every property in the building has insurance to cover serious damage that affects all properties. The title deeds for your property either require your factor to arrange this policy or you have opted for your factor to arrange it.

Your cover is detailed within your policy schedule. This limit will protect you and your neighbours from being under-insured. Please read this policy and schedule carefully to ensure that the cover meets your requirements. If you think it would take more than this to restore your property, please contact Lowther Homes to discuss your requirements. If we have agreed a higher limit for your property, this will be displayed on your policy schedule and may incur a higher premium cost.

It is really important for you to make sure that if there is a serious incident, such as a fire or a flood, you will be covered - otherwise you may find yourself unable to restore your home to its former condition.

Arranging this block insurance ensures that every property has enough cover and that all premiums are paid so the policy continues to be valid.

Your mortgage lender may offer you individual buildings insurance. You should explain that under your deed of conditions your factor must arrange the insurance as part of a block policy. Lowther Homes are happy to confirm your insurance cover to your lender, and if asked, formally note their interest. There is a small charge for this service.

Please note the policy does not provide any cover for the contents of your home. You will need to make separate arrangements if you need contents insurance.

The Contract of Insurance

The contract of insurance between You and Us consists of the following elements, which must be read together:

- your policy wording;
- the information provided by You and/or the application form;
- the policy schedule;
- any notice issued by Us at renewal;
- any endorsement to Your policy; and
- the information under the heading “Important Information” which We give You when You take out or renew a policy.

In return for You having paid or agreed to pay the premium, We will provide the cover set out in this policy, to the extent of and subject to the terms and conditions contained in or endorsed on this policy.

Important

This policy is a legal contract. You must tell Us about any material circumstances which affect Your insurance and which have occurred either since the policy started or since the last renewal date.

A circumstance is material if it would influence Our judgement in determining whether to provide the cover and, if so, on what terms.

If You are not sure whether a circumstance is material, ask Your insurance adviser. If You fail to tell Us it could affect the extent of cover provided under the policy.

You should keep a written record (including copies of letters) of any information You give Us or Your insurance adviser when You renew this policy.

Breach of Term

We agree that where there has been a breach of any term (express or implied) which would otherwise result in Us automatically being discharged from any liability, then such a breach shall result in any liability We might have under this policy being suspended. Such a suspension will apply only from the date and time at which the breach occurred and up until the date and time at which the breach is remedied. This means that We will have no liability in respect of any loss occurring, or attributable to something happening, during the period of suspension.

Terms not relevant to the actual loss

Where there has been non-compliance with any term (express or implied) of this policy, other than a term that defines the risk as a whole, and compliance with such term would tend to reduce the risk of:

- loss of a particular kind, and/or
- loss at a particular location, and/or
- loss at a particular time,

then We agree that We may not rely on the noncompliance to exclude, limit or discharge Our liability under this policy if You show that non-compliance with the term could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.
